The arrows lead to the "outlet" date by which each stage of the progress of a Report can be completed. The dates in column 6 will be effective only in cases where no remarks are made at the Discussion; if any remarks are made at the Discussion, the Council or its Business Committee (BC) will need to consider them and this may result in a delay of at least a further week. Italics indicate short online Council meetings; meeting dates not in italics are expected to be in person. Double-lined boxes indicate dates on which BC meetings are expected to take place online. The dates in column 6 are more likely on other dates. The grey lines indicate the dates for the approval of a Report before the next Term begins. Placed in italics are expected to be in person. Double-lined boxes indicate dates on which BC meetings are expected to take place online. Italics indicate short online Council meetings; meeting dates not in italics are expected to be in person. Double-lined boxes indicate dates on which BC meetings are expected to take place online. Approved by circulation is more likely on other dates. The grey lines indicate the dates for the approval of a Report before the next Term begins. Placed in italics are expected to be in person. Double-lined boxes indicate dates on which BC meetings are expected to take place online. Italics indicate short online Council meetings; meeting dates not in italics are expected to be in person. Double-lined boxes indicate dates on which BC meetings are expected to take place online. The dates in column 6 will be effective only in cases where no remarks are made at the Discussion; if any remarks are made at the Discussion, the Council or its Business Committee (BC) will need to consider them and this may result in a delay of at least a further week. Italics indicate short online Council meetings; meeting dates not in italics are expected to be in person. Double-lined boxes indicate dates on which BC meetings are expected to take place online. Approved by circulation is more likely on other dates. The grey lines indicate the dates for the approval of a Report before the next Term begins. Placed in italics are expected to be in person. Double-lined boxes indicate dates on which BC meetings are expected to take place online. Italics indicate short online Council meetings; meeting dates not in italics are expected to be in person. Double-lined boxes indicate dates on which BC meetings are expected to take place online. The dates in column 6 will be effective only in cases where no remarks are made at the Discussion; if any remarks are made at the Discussion, the Council or its Business Committee (BC) will need to consider them and this may result in a delay of at least a further week. Italics indicate short online Council meetings; meeting dates not in italics are expected to be in person. Double-lined boxes indicate dates on which BC meetings are expected to take place online. Italics indicate short online Council meetings; meeting dates not in italics are expected to be in person. Double-lined boxes indicate dates on which BC meetings are expected to take place online. The dates in column 6 will be effective only in cases where no remarks are made at the Discussion; if any remarks are made at the Discussion, the Council or its Business Committee (BC) will need to consider them and this may result in a delay of at least a further week. Italics indicate short online Council meetings; meeting dates not in italics are expected to be in person. Double-lined boxes indicate dates on which BC meetings are expected to take place online. Approved by circulation is more likely on other dates. The grey lines indicate the dates for the approval of a Report before the next Term begins. Placed in italics are expected to be in person. Double-lined boxes indicate dates on which BC meetings are expected to take place online. Italics indicate short online Council meetings; meeting dates not in italics are expected to be in person. Double-lined boxes indicate dates on which BC meetings are expected to take place online. The dates in column 6 will be effective only in cases where no remarks are made at the Discussion; if any remarks are made at the Discussion, the Council or its Business Committee (BC) will need to consider them and this may result in a delay of at least a further week. Italics indicate short online Council meetings; meeting dates not in italics are expected to be in person. Double-lined boxes indicate dates on which BC meetings are expected to take place online. Italics indicate short online Council meetings; meeting dates not in italics are expected to be in person. Double-lined boxes indicate dates on which BC meetings are expected to take place online. The dates in column 6 will be effective only in cases where no remarks are made at the Discussion; if any remarks are made at the Discussion, the Council or its Business Committee (BC) will need to consider them and this may result in a delay of at least a further week. Italics indicate short online Council meetings; meeting dates not in italics are expected to be in person. Double-lined boxes indicate dates on which BC meetings are expected to take place online. Approved by circulation is more likely on other dates. The grey lines indicate the dates for the approval of a Report before the next Term begins. Placed in italics are expected to be in person. Double-lined boxes indicate dates on which BC meetings are expected to take place online. Italics indicate short online Council meetings; meeting dates not in italics are expected to be in person. Double-lined boxes indicate dates on which BC meetings are expected to take place online. The dates in column 6 will be effective only in cases where no remarks are made at the Discussion; if any remarks are made at the Discussion, the Council or its Business Committee (BC) will need to consider them and this may result in a delay of at least a further week. Italics indicate short online Council meetings; meeting dates not in italics are expected to be in person. Double-lined boxes indicate dates on which BC meetings are expected to take place online. Italics indicate short online Council meetings; meeting dates not in italics are expected to be in person. Double-lined boxes indicate dates on which BC meetings are expected to take place online. The dates in column 6 will be effective only in cases where no remarks are made at the Discussion; if any remarks are made at the Discussion, the Council or its Business Committee (BC) will need to consider them and this may result in a delay of at least a further week. Italics indicate short online Council meetings; meeting dates not in italics are expected to be in person. Double-lined boxes indicate dates on which BC meetings are expected to take place online. Approved by circulation is more likely on other dates. The grey lines indicate the dates for the approval of a Report before the next Term begins. Placed in italics are expected to be in person. Double-lined boxes indicate dates on which BC meetings are expected to take place online. Italics indicate short online Council meetings; meeting dates not in italics are expected to be in person. Double-lined boxes indicate dates on which BC meetings are expected to take place online. The dates in column 6 will be effective only in cases where no remarks are made at the Discussion; if any remarks are made at the Discussion, the Council or its Business Committee (BC) will need to consider them and this may result in a delay of at least a further week. Italics indicate short online Council meetings; meeting dates not in italics are expected to be in person. Double-lined boxes indicate dates on which BC meetings are expected to take place online. Italics indicate short online Council meetings; meeting dates not in italics are expected to be in person. Double-lined boxes indicate dates on which BC meetings are expected to take place online. The dates in column 6 will be effective only in cases where no remarks are made at the Discussion; if any remarks are made at the Discussion, the Council or its Business Committee (BC) will need to consider them and this may result in a delay of at least a further week. Italics indicate short online Council meetings; meeting dates not in italics are expected to be in person. Double-lined boxes indicate dates on which BC meetings are expected to take place online. Italics indicate short online Council meetings; meeting dates not in italics are expected to be in person. Double-lined boxes indicate dates on which BC meetings are expected to take place online. The dates in column 6 will be effective only in cases where no remarks are made at the Discussion; if any remarks are made at the Discussion, the Council or its Business Committee (BC) will need to consider them and this may result in a delay of at least a further week. Italics indicate short online Council meetings; meeting dates not in italics are expected to be in person. Double-lined boxes indicate dates on which BC meetings are expected to take place online. Italics indicate short online Council meetings; meeting dates not in italics are expected to be in person. Double-lined boxes indicate dates on which BC meetings are expected to take place online.